

Myra Amanda Clark Thomas

LEHI Centennial History 1850-1950

Myra Amanda Clark Thomas was born March 15, 1854 in Lehi, Utah to David and Myra Williams Clark, early pioneers of Lehi.

Mrs. Thomas was a devoted wife and mother. Of their twelve children, ten lived to maturity.

Mrs. Thomas possessed a sweet singing voice. She was an excellent cook, a thrifty manager, and took pride in her needlework.

An excellent rider, she had her own favorite saddle horse which she enjoyed riding. She made a practice of attending the funeral of everyone who died in Lehi, believing such an act to be a respect due the dead.

Myra died January 12, 1900, (two days after her last child was born).
